

A unique opportunity to experience Cuba...

Join us on a journey of a lifetime to experience Cuba in this specially-tailored people-to-people visit.

- Sat., December 29: Fly to Havana
- Visit many sites in Havana, 3 days in Villa Clara province, 1 day in Artemisa province
- Wed., January 9: Depart Cuba

For 11 nights and 12 days, you will immerse yourself in Cuban society, culture and history as we visit museums, hear from local and national leaders, visit with neighborhood communities, workers and academics, tour historic sites, and enjoy the food and music. Begin a friendship with the people of Cuba, a country renowned for its culture and history!

Cuban Tody, photo: Steve Patt

Come with us to Cuba!

Write

info@cuba-venezuela.org

Call

415-312-6042 for details

CUBA

People to People Trips

Sponsored by the
Cuba-Venezuela Solidarity Committee

Your Travel

11 nights, 12 days

All-inclusive cost includes:

- Hotel accommodations in Cuba, health insurance in Cuba, guide/translator, air-conditioned transport, hotel in Ft. Lauderdale or Miami
- Meals and gratuities
- All tours, lectures, activities, museum fees
- Dance and music performances
- Orientation sessions to prepare beforehand
- Call 415-312-6042 for the cost of trip and details, or email info@cuba-venezuela.org

Your Program

- Visits to Historic museums of: 1. The Cuban Revolution, 2. Literacy Campaign, 3. Fine Arts, much more
- New workers' cooperatives & factory
- Che Guevara mausoleum/museum in Viilla Clara province & day excursion to the colonial-era town of Remedios
- Meet with political, community, cultural, women's, youth and union leaders, academics, teachers, medical workers
- Tour of Old Havana
- Wonderful cuisine experiences
- Traditional cannon shot ceremony at San Carlos de la Cabaña fortress
- Free time for personal excursions

Your Guides

Gloria La Riva

Gloria La Riva is a U.S. activist with a long and important friendship with Cuba, since her first trip in 1985. For 13 years she was coordinator of the National Committee to Free the Cuban Five, who are now home free in Cuba. She has led many solidarity campaigns with Cuba.

Andrés Gómez

Andrés Gómez, a Cuban born in Havana whose family came to the U.S. in the early 1960s, he has led major efforts for normalization of U.S.-Cuba relations and the end of the U.S. blockade. He is a lecturer on Cuba's rich culture and history.